Thank you to Mrs Brannigan, Mrs Walker & the Yr 6 'Young Apprentices' for making lots of Valentine's treats to sell. Thank you to the Friends of St Joseph's (FOSJ) parent group for our Valentine's disco and treats!

As St David's Day falls on a Saturday this year we will not be together for a St David's Mass. However, we will be holding a Welsh Week 'Wythnos Cwricwlwm Cymreig' from 4th – 7th March and pupils will be able to wear Welsh costumes/jerseys/ red on Friday 7th March for in-school celebrations.

Parents are welcome to our Ash Wednesday service March 5th

World Book Day is also after half term, –March 6th - we will not be dressing up for this day as we have dressed up for Valentine's Day and will be for St David's. The FOSJ parent group has arranged a 'Sponsored listen/read' for the week of 10th-16th March where parents/guardians are encouraged to spend time reading with or to their children. Forms have been sent home and text out. If you visit Clydach library and introduce yourselves to staff as St Joseph's pupils, there will be a sweet treat! Thank you Mr & Mrs Betney for providing this incentive. There's also a 'Strangest Place to Read' competition where pupils upload to Hwb a photo of themselves reading in the strangest place possible. 3 winners will receive a £10 book voucher.

Visitation of the Relic of Blessed Carlo Acutis to Sacred Heart Church, Morriston, Sunday 16th 5pm Gather, 5:45 pm Reception of Relic and talk by custodians. Refreshments then Mass & Veneration 8pm. Carlo Acutis, who died of leukaemia at age 15 in 2006, is already referred to as "God's influencer" for his work cataloguing Eucharistic miracles around the world.
