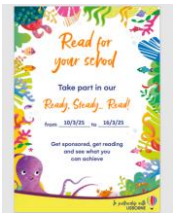
We have had a great Welsh Week 'Wythnos Cwricwlwm Cymreig' this week. Thank you to everyone who has sent in homework and we have had a lovely day full of awards, singing and dancing. Thank you to all the pupils who performed for us this afternoon, sharing their wonderful talents. A huge thank you to staff for judging the entries and producing and presenting the certificates and especially to Mrs. Weaver for all of your hard work arranging our first St Joseph's Eisteddfod Bard crowning. Congratulations to the winner of the St Joseph's Bard – Mila Monks. Mila write a beautiful poem about where her 'cynefin/belonging' was. Photos will be put on the website.

The FOSJ parent group has arranged a 'Sponsored listen/read' for World Book Day celebrations for next week the week of 10th-16th March where parents/ guardians are encouraged to spend time reading with or to their children. Forms have been sent home & text out. There's also a 'Strangest Place to Read' competition where pupils upload to Hwb and 3 winners will receive a £10 book voucher.



This week has seen the start of our Mini Vinnies creating and recording Lenten reflections. Week 1 is on the website to be viewed.
Huge thanks as well to Ms Torrance and the Mini Vinnies for leading our Ash Wednesday service.
