We have a very busy Summer term with lots planned.

We are having a great day celebrating the 80th anniversary of VE Day today. Thank you to everyone for dressing up – there'll be photos uploaded later on to the website. We had 'street parties' with treats and music and were visited by some local veterans. Hopefully it will be a day to remember for pupils and there was lots learnt.

This Saturday, May 10th, a number of our pupils will be making their First Holy Communion. All are welcome to celebrate with us at St Benedicts Church at 10 a.m. and there will be teas and coffees in the hall after Mass.

Image Theatre will be visiting to perform, with the help of our pupils, on Tuesday May 13th. They visit us once a year and always give our pupils a wonderful show. Please send in £3 per family to cover the costs.

The RNLI visited Years 3 – 6 on Tuesday to tell them about water safety – especially now with the hotter weather coming. The pupils enjoyed their presentation and trying on their kit.

Friday June 6th is the date for our School Sports Day – weather permitting. Nursery will race for parents at 11 am and then in the afternoon at 1:15 pm for Reception – Year 6. We want to make it a bit different this year. All classes will race and there will be stalls, games like 'Beat the Goalie' etc. Please come along for a fun filled afternoon.

HAS ANYONE GOT ANY OLD TENTS/SUN SAILS/SHADES etc. (even play tents) THAT WE COULD CUT & USE FOR OUR OUTDOOR LESSONS? If you do please send them into school for us to repurpose, thanks.
