Please remember we are Crowning Our Lady's statue Monday 19th May 11 am in the school yard. Please can your child bring in a flower and if they have a rosary it's nice to bring it in but there are plenty of spare rosaries to borrow.

There are photos on the website of our VE Day celebrations. Mr Stephen Cook from the Clydach Veterans Group messaged to say, "May I take this opportunity to thank you all so much for your support in celebrating the 80th Anniversary of VE Day. The whole event was amazing and beyond my expectations."

Congratulations to the children who made their First Holy Communion last Saturday. They were respectful and attentive throughout Mass and all looked beautiful. A big thank you to Mrs Brannigan and Mrs Walker who helped prepare them so well and to the staff who helped with refreshments.

Image Theatre visited on Tuesday to perform 'Jungle Book.' The children really enjoyed the production and acting and singing along. Photos are on the website. Thank you to everyone who paid the £3 contribution which enables us to have them back every year.

On Wednesday Years 3 & 4 had a great time singing and dancing in the Urdd Jambori. Photos are on the website.

The Usborne Sponsored Read Representative delivered our free books this week. As a school we raised £1,369 which was then increased, by Usborne, to £2,190.40 and with special offers we had £3, 808. 72 worth of books. Thank you so much for your sponsorship money and the time given to reading. A huge thank you to the FOSJ for their idea and hard work.
